{Chapter III.—Adjudication as to Stamps.—Sections 31, 32.}

CHAPTER III.
ADJUDICATION AS TO STAMPS.

Adjudication as to proper stamp. 31. (1) When any instrument, whether executed or not and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and the person bringing it applies to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty (if any) with which it is chargeable, and pays a fee of such amount (not exceeding five rupees and not less than [fifty naye paise]) as the Collector may in each case direct, the Collector shall determine the duty (if any) with which, in his judgement the instrument is chargeable.

(2) For this purpose the Collector may require to be furnished with an abstract or the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence have been furnished accordingly :

Provided that

(a) no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and

(1) every person by whom any such evidence is furnished shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty which he may have incurred under this Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid,

32. (1) "When an instrument brought to the Collector under section 31, is, in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and

(a) the Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or

(b) the duty determined by the Collector under section 31, or such a sum as, with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty so determined, has been paid,

Certifier, ^ by Collector, the Collector shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty (stating the amount) with which it is chargeable has been paid,

(2) When such instrument is, in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify in manner aforesaid that such instrument is not so chargeable.

(Chapter IV.—Instruments not duly stamped.—Section 33.)

(3) Any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under this section, shall be deemed to be duly stamped or not chargeable with duty, as the case may be; and, if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped :

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorise the Collector to endorse

- (a) any instrument [other than an instrument chargeable with a duty under clause (bb) of the first proviso to section 3] executed or first executed in <sup>1</sup>[India] and brought to him after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution or first execution, as the case may be;
- (b) any instrument executed or first executed out of <sup>2</sup>[India] and brought to him after the expiration of three months after it has been first received in <sup>3</sup>[India]<sup>3*</sup>;
- (c) any instrument chargeable [with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] or any bill of exchange or promissory note, when brought to him, after the drawing or execution thereof, on paper not duly stamped; (or
- (d) any instrument chargeable with duty under clause (bb) of the first proviso to section 3 and brought to him after the expiration of three months of the date on which it is first received in <sup>6</sup>[West Bengal]).

CHAPTER IV.

INSTRUMENTS NOT DULY STAMPED.

33. (1) (a) Every person having by law or consent of parties Examination authority to receive evidence, and every person in charge of a public and impounding office, except an officer of police, before whom any instrument, charge- or instruments, able, in his opinion, with duty, is produced or comes in the performance of his functions, shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same.

- (b) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 31, but without prejudice to the provisions of clause (a) of this sub-section, the Collector, before whom any instrument is brought under section 31 for determining the duty with which the instrument is chargeable, shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same :

Provided that nothing contained in this clause shall be deemed to authorise the Collector to impound any instrument which has not been executed but is brought to him under section 31 for determining the duty with which the instrument is chargeable or any instrument which he is authorised to endorse under section 32.

(Chapter IV.—Instruments not duly stamped.—Section 33.)

- (2) for that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable and so produced or coming before him in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law in force in [India] when such instrument was executed or first executed :

Provided that<sup>6</sup>

- (a) nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate or Judge of a Criminal Court to examine or impound, if he does not think fit so to do, any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Act V 1898;<sup>of 1898</sup>
- (b) in the case of Judge of a High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court appoints in this behalf.
- (3) For the purposes of the section, in cases of doubt,—
- (a) the [State Government] may determine what offices shall be deemed to be public offices; and
- (b) the [State Government] may determine who shall be deemed to be persons in charge of public offices.
- <sup>3</sup> (4) Where deficiency in stamp duty is noticed from the copy of any instrument, the Collector may, suo motu or on a reference from any Court or from the Commissioners of Divisions or from any officer authorised by the Board of Revenue in that behalf, call for the original instrument for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the adequacy or the duty paid thereon, and the instrument so produced before the Collector shall be deemed to have been produced or come before him in the performance of his functions.
- <sup>3</sup>(5) In case the instrument is not produced within the period specified by the Collector, he may require payment of deficit stamp duty, if any, together with penalty under section 40 on the copy of the instrument :

Provided that no action under this sub-section shall be taken after a period of four years from the date of execution of the instrument.

(Chapter IV.—Instruments not duly stamped.—Sections 34, 35.)

34. Where any receipt chargeable '[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise]' is tendered to or produced before any officer unstamped in the course of the audit of any public account, such officer may in his discretion, instead of impounding the instrument, require a duly stamped receipt to be substituted therefor.

Special provision as to unstamped receipts.

35. No instrument chargeable with duty shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is duly stamped :

Instruments not duly stamped inadmissible in evidence, etc.

Provided that<sup>o</sup>

- (a) any such instrument not being an instrument chargeable '[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise]' only, or a bill of exchange or promissory note, shall, subject to all just exceptions, be admitted in evidence on payment of the duty with the same is chargeable, or in the case of an instrument insufficiently stamped, of the amount required to make up such duty, together with a penalty of five rupees, or, when ten times the amount of the proper duty or deficient portion thereof exceeds five rupees, of a sum equal to ten times such duty or portion;
  - (b) Where any person from whom a stamped receipt could have been demanded, has given an unstamped receipt and such receipt, if stamped, would be admissible in evidence against him, such receipt shall be admitted in evidence against him on payment of a penalty of one rupee by the person tendering it;
  - (c) where a contract or agreement of any kind is effected by correspondence consisting of two or more letters and any one of the letters bears the proper stamp, the contract or agreement shall be deemed to be duly stamped;
- Nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in any proceeding in a Criminal Court, other than a proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898;
- (e) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in any court when such instrument has been executed by or on behalf of <sup>3</sup>[the Government], or where it bears the certificate of the Collector as provided by section 32 or any other provision of this Act.

<sup>3</sup>The words "the Crown" were substituted for the words "the Government" by para. 3 and the 1st Schedule of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, and hereafter the word "Government" was substituted for the word "Crown" by paragraph 4(j) of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

36. Where an instrument has been admitted in evidence, such admission shall not, except as provided in section 61, be called in question at any stage or the same suit or proceeding on the ground that the instrument has not been duly stamped.

37. The [State Government] may make rules providing that, where an instrument bears a stamp of sufficient amount but of improper description, it may, on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, be certified to be duly stamped, and any instrument so certified shall then be deemed to have been duly stamped as from the date of its execution.

38- (1) When the person impounding an instrument under section 33 has by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence and admits such instrument in evidence upon payment of a penalty as provided by section 35 or of duty as provided by section 37, he shall send to the Collector an authenticated copy of such instrument, together with a certificate in writing, stating the amount of duty and penalty levied in respect thereof, and shall send such amount to the Collector, or to such person as he may appoint in this behalf.

(2) In every other case, the person so impounding an instrument shall send it in original to the Collector.

39. (i) When a copy of an instrument is sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (J), he may, if he thinks fit,* * refund any portion of the penalty in excess of five rupees which has been paid in respect of such instrument,

(2) When such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may refund the whole penalty so paid.

40. (7) When the Collector impounds any instrument under section 33, or receives any instrument sent to him under section 38, sub-section (2), not being an instrument chargeable [with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] only or a bill of exchange or promissory note, he shall adopt the following procedure :

- ( ) if he is of opinion that such instrument is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is duly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable, as the case may be;
- ( ) if he is of opinion that such instrument is chargeable with duty and is not duly stamped, he shall require the payment of the proper duty or the amount required to make up the same, together with a penalty of five rupees; or, if he thinks fit, <sup>1</sup>[an amount not exceeding] ten times the amount of the proper duty or of the deficient portion thereof, whether such amount exceeds or falls short of five rupees:

<sup>1</sup>These words were inserted by 5, 6 of the Indian Stamp (Amendment) Act, 1904 (XV of 1904).

(Chapter IV.—Instruments not duly stamped.—Sections 41, 42.)

Provided that, when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, remit the whole penalty prescribed by this section.

(2) Every certificate under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be conclusive evidence of the matter stated therein.

(3) Where an instrument has been sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (2), the Collector shall, when he has dealt with it as provided by this section, return it to the impounding officer.

41. If any instrument chargeable with duty and not duly stamped, not being an instrument chargeable [with a duty not exceeding ten naye poise] only or a bill of exchange or promissory note is produced by any person of his own motion before the Collector within one year from the date of its execution or first execution, and such person brings to the notice of the Collector the fact that such instrument is not duly stamped and offers to pay to the Collector the amount of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, and the Collector is satisfied that the omission to duly stamp such instrument has been occasioned by accident, mistake or urgent necessity, he may, instead of proceeding under sections 33 and 40, receive such amount and proceed as next hereinafter prescribed.

Instruments

Prosecution for offence against Section 43.

43. — The taking of proceedings or the payment of a penalty under this Chapter in respect of any instrument shall not bar the prosecution of any person who appears to have committed an offence against the Stamp-law in respect of such instrument :

Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted in the case of any instrument in respect of which such a penalty has been paid, unless it appears to the Collector that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty,

44. (7) When any duty or penalty has been paid under section 35, section 37, section 40 or section 41, by any person in respect of an instrument, and, by agreement or under the provisions of section 29 or any other enactment in force at the time such instrument was executed, some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, the first mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty or penalty so paid.

(2) For the purpose of such recovery, any certificate granted in respect of such instrument under this Act shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein certified.

(J) Such amount may, if the Court thinks fit, be included in any order as to costs in any suit or proceeding to which such person are parties and in which such instrument has been tendered in evidence. If the Court does not include the amount in such order, no further proceedings, for the recovery of the amount shall be maintainable.

45. (7) Where any penalty is paid under section 35 or section 40, the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority may, upon application in writing made within one year from the date of the payment, refund such penalty wholly or in part,

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Chief Controlling Revenue- authority, stamp-duty in excess of that which is legally chargeable has been charged and paid under section 35 or section 40, such authority may, upon application in writing made within three months of the order charging the same, refund the excess.

46. (Y) If any instrument sent to (he Collector under section 38, sub-section (2), is lost, destroyed or damaged during transmission, the person sending the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction or damage.

(2) When any instrument is about to be so sent, the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the person impounding the same may require a copy thereof to be made at the expense of such first-mentioned person and authenticated by the person impounding such instrument.

Persons paying duty or penalty may recover same in certain cases.

47. When any bill of exchange [or promissory note] chargeable [with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] is presented for payment unstamped, [the person to whom it is so presented may affix thereto the necessary adhesive stamp, and, upon cancelling the same in manner hereinbefore provided, may pay the sum payable upon such bill [or note], and may charge the duty against the person who ought to have paid the same, or deduct it from the sum payable as aforesaid, and such bill [or note] shall, so far as respects the duty, be deemed good and valid :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall relieve any person from any penalty or proceeding [to which he may be liable in relation to such bill, [or note].

16 or *47A. (1) Where the registering officer appointed under the 1908, Registration Act, 1908, has, while registering any instrument of conveyance, exchange, gift, partition or settlement, reason to believe that the market value of [the property which is [the subject-matter of such instrument has not been truly set forth in the instrument, he may, notwithstanding the contrary provision in section 35 in so far as it relates to registration, register such instrument provisionally, subject to determination of the market value under sub-section (2), and, after registering such instrument, refer the matter to such authority as may be prescribed for determination of the market value of such property and the proper duty payable thereon.

(2) On receipt of a reference under sub-section (1), such authority shall, after giving the parties concerned an opportunity of making their representation and after holding an enquiry in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act, determine the market value of the property which is the subject-matter of such instrument and the amount of the duty payable as aforesaid. The difference, if any, in the amount of duty shall be payable by the person liable to pay the duty.

(3) The authority referred to in sub-section (2) may suo motu within two years from the date of registration of such instrument, not already referred to him under sub-section (7), call for and examine any instrument for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the correctness of the market value of the property which is the subject-matter of such instrument and [the duty payable (hereon and if, after such examination, he has reasons to believe that the market value of such property has not been truly set forth in the instrument, he may determine the market value of such property and the amount of the duty payable as aforesaid in accordance with the procedure provided for in sub-section (2). The difference, if any, in the amount of duty, shall be payable by the person liable to pay the duty :

- (1) in the cases mentioned in clause (d) (5), within two months of the date of the instrument;
- (2) in the case of a stamped paper on which no instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto, within six months after the stamp has been spoiled;

(Chapter V. Allowances for Stamps in certain cases.— Sections 51, 52.)

(3) in the case of a stamped paper in which an instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto, within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed :

Provided that,

(a) when the spoiled instrument has been for sufficient reasons sent out of India the application may be made within six months after it has been received back in India;

(b) when, from unavoidable circumstances, any instrument for which another instrument has been substituted, cannot be given up to be cancelled within the aforesaid period, the application may be made within six months after the date of execution of the substituted instrument.

51. The Chief Controlling Revenue-authority<sup>2</sup> [or the Collector if empowered by the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority in this behalf] may, without limit of time, make allowance for stamped paper used for printed forms of instruments<sup>3</sup> [by any banker or] by any incorporated company or other body corporate, if for any sufficient reason such forms have ceased to be required by the said [banker], company or body corporate : provided that such authority is satisfied that the duty in respect of such stamped papers has been duly paid.

52. (a) When any person has inadvertently used for an instrument chargeable with duty, stamp of a description other than that prescribed for such instrument by the rules made under this Act, or a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used any stamp for an instrument not chargeable with any duty; or

(b) when any stamp used for an instrument has been inadvertently rendered useless under section 15, owing to such instrument having been written in contravention of the provisions of section 13;

the Collector may, on application made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if chargeable with duty, being re-slamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused or rendered useless.

53. In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps, the Collector may give in lieu thereof

(a) other stamps of the same description and value; or (ib) if required and he thinks fit, stamps of any other description to the same amount in value; or (c) at his discretion, the same value in money, deducting <sup>1</sup> [ten naye paise] for each rupee or fraction of a rupee.

54. When any person is possessed of a stamp or stamps which have not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money, deducting [ten naye paise] for each rupee or portion of a rupee, upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled, and proving to the Collector's satisfaction

(ti) that such stamp or stamps were purchased by such person with a bona fide intention to use them; and (b) that he has paid the full price thereof; and (c) that they were so purchased within the period of six months next preceding the date on which they were so delivered:

Provided that, where the person is a licensed vendor of stamps, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, make the repayment of the sum actually paid by the vendor without any such deduction as aforesaid.

<sup>2</sup>54A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 54, when any person is possessed of a stamp or stamps in any denominations, other than in denominations of annas four or multiples thereof and such stamp or stamps has or have not been spoiled, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money calculated in accordance with the provision of sub-section (2) of section 14 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1906, upon such person delivering up, within six months from the commencement of the Indian Stamp (Amendment) Act, 1958, such stamp or stamps to the Collector,

<sup>3</sup>54B. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 54, when any person is possessed of stamps bearing the inscription "Refugee Relief" (being stamps issued pursuant to section 3A before its omission) and such stamps have not been spoiled, the Collector shall, upon such person delivering up, within six months from the commencement of the Refugee Relief Taxes (Abolition) Act, 1973, such stamps to the Collector, refund to such person the value of such

57. (I) The Chief Controlling Revenue-authority may slate any case referred to it under section 56, sub-section (2), or otherwise coming to its notice, and refer such case, with its own opinion thereon, if it arises in a State, to the High Court for that State; if it arises in the Union Territory of Delhi or Himachal Pradesh, to the High Court of Punjab;

(c) if it arises in the Union Territory of Manipur or Tripura, to the High Court of Assam;
(d) if it arises in the Union Territory of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, to the High Court at Calcutta; and
(e) if it arises in the Union Territory of the Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivj Islands, to the High Court of Kerala.

(2) Every such case shall be decided by not less than three Judges of the High Court, to which it is referred and in case of difference the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

58. If the High Court is not satisfied that the statements contained in the case are sufficient to enable it to determine the questions raised thereby, the Court may refer the case back to the Revenue-authority by which it was stated, to make such additions thereto or alterations therein as the Court may direct in that behalf.

59. (1) The High Court upon the hearing of any such case, shall decide the questions raised thereby, and shall deliver its judgment thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded.

(2) The Court shall send to the Revenue-authority by which the case was stated, a copy of such judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar; and the Revenue-authority shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

60. (1) If any Court, other than a Court mentioned in section 57, feels doubt as to the amount of duty to be paid in respect of any instrument under proviso (a) to section 35, the Judge may draw up a statement of the case and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the High Court to which, if he were the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority, he would, under section 57, refer the same.
