AMENDED

[25th July, 1972.]

An Act to provide for the imposition of taxes on entertainments and luxuries in hotels and restaurants.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the imposition of taxes on entertainments and luxuries in hotels and restaurants and for matters connected therewith;

It is hereby enacted in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India, by the Legislature of West Bengal, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the West Bengal Entertainments and Luxuries (Hotels and Restaurants) Tax Act, 1972.

(2) It extends to the whole of West Bengal.

Short title, extent and application.

(3) It shall apply in the first instance only to Calcutta but the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, apply the provisions of this Act to any other area specified in such notification.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

■(a) "Calcutta" means the area described in Schedule I to the Calcutta Municipal Corporation Act, 1980;

Definitions.

(aa) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner or Agricultural Income-tax appointed under sub-section (2) of section 21 of the Bengal Agricultural Income-tax Act, 1944; (b) "entertainment" means any exhibition, performance, amusement, game, sport, cabaret, dance or floor show ~~###~~ provided in any hotel or restaurant;

West Ben. Act LIX of 1980,

Gen. Act IV of 1944.

For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, Part IVA of the 1st July, 1972, page 1414; for proceedings of the West Bengal Legislative Assembly, see the proceedings of the meeting of that Assembly held on the 4th July, 1972.

Clause (aa) was inserted by s. 5(1) of the West Bengal Finance Act, 1999 (West Ben. Act III of 1999).

The words "and includes performance by my singer, musician or bandsman" were omitted by s. 5(1)(a) of the West Bengal Finance Act, 1994 (West Ben. Act XVI of 1994).

(Section 3.)

- (c) "entertainment tax" means tax payable under section 3 of this Act;
- (ca) "hotel" means a building or part of a building or any place where any activity or business is carried on in providing lodging or boarding or any kind of accommodation, with or without supply of food, drinks or refreshments, to the members of the public on payment or for any consideration with the object of making profit;
- <sup>3</sup>(d) "luxury" means provision for—
 (i) air-conditioning through air-conditioner or central air-conditioning or any other mechanical means, or (ii) air-cooling through air-cooler, provided in any of the rooms, or any part of a building, constituting a hotel or restaurant;

Liability for 3. 1) An entertainment tax shall be payable by every person who is admitted into or enters any place, within either a hotel or restaurant, which is provided with luxury, where an entertainment is provided, and such tax shall be calculated <sup>5</sup>[at the rate of 30 per centum] of [the total sum paid or payable by such person for all the services including food and drink, supplied to him and also including any fee for admission into such place of entertainment:

These words within the square brackets were inserted with retrospective effect by s. 2(b) of the West Bengal Entertainments and Luxuries (Hotels and Restaurants) Tax (Amendment) Act, 1974 (West Ben. Act X of 1974).

Section 3 was renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section and after sub-section (1) was so renumbered, sub-section (2) was added by s. 7(2) of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Second Amendment) Act, 1990 (West Ben. Act VIII of 1990).

The figure and words "15 per centum" were first substituted for the figure and words "10 per centum" by s. 3(a) of the West Bengal Entertainments and Luxuries (Hotels and Restaurants) Tax (Amendment) Act, 1974 (West Ben. Act X of 1974). Thereafter these figure and words within square brackets were substituted for the figure and words "at the rate of 15 per centum" by s. 3(1)(a) of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 1979 (West Ben. Act III of 1979).

(Section 4.)

Provided that where payment is charged for admission to the place of entertainment, the entertainment tax under this section shall in no case be less than '[60 per centum] of such payment for admission to the place or entertainment:

-Provided further that the State Government may, by notification published in the Official Gazette, direct that entertainment tax shall be payable—

- (a) by such class of persons, or
- (b) in respect of entertainment provided in such class of hotels or restaurants, at such rate lower than that fixed under this section, and subject to such restrictions and conditions, as may be specified in the said notification;

<sup>2</sup>Provided also that subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be prescribed, no entertainment tax shall be payable—

- (a) by such class of persons, or
- (b) in respect of entertainment provided in such class of hotels or restaurants and in such area or areas, as may be prescribed.

<sup>4</sup>4. There shall be charged, levied and paid to the State Government Liability for a luxury tax by the proprietor of every hotel and restaurant in which <sup>luxury</sup> there is provision for luxury and such tax shall be calculated—

- (a) in the case of a restaurant at the rate of an annual sum of rupees three hundred for every ten square metres or part thereof in respect of so much of the floor area of restaurant which is provided with luxury, and

The figure and words "30 per centum" were first substituted for the figure and words "25 per centum" by s. 3(b) of the West Bengal Entertainments and Luxuries (Hotels and Restaurants) Tax (Amendment) Act, 1974 (West Ben. Act X of 1974). Thereafter these figure and words within square brackets were substituted for the words "30 per centum" by s. 3(1)(b) of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 1979 (West Ben. Act III of 1979).

The second and third proviso were added by s. 2(1) of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 1997 (West Ben. Act XXIII of 1997).

(b) in the case of a hotel at such rate hol exceeding '[twenty- five per centum of the daily charges realised or realisable, as the case may be, for an occupied room] provided with luxury as may be notified by the State Government in the Official Gazette:

-Provided that subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be prescribed, no luxury tax shall be charged, levied and paid under clause (b) in respect of daily charges realised or realisable for any occupied room provided with luxury from such class of persons as may be prescribed.

MA. The entertainment tax under section 3 recoverable from, and the luxury tax under section 4 payable by, a proprietor, shall be deposited into a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India, and returns shall be furnished by him to such authority, in such form, in such manner, and within such time, as may be prescribed.

Payment of
tax and returns

MB. (1) If the amount of entertainment tax payable under section 3 or the luxury tax under section 4 is not paid within the time as prescribed under section 4A, the proprietor shall pay a simple interest at the rate of two per centum for each English calendar month of default from the first day of such month next following the prescribed date up to the month prior to the month in which such tax is fully paid or up to the month prior to the month of assessment under section 5 in respect of such period, whichever is earlier, upon so much of the amount of tax payable by him according to returns where returns are furnished, or according to such assessment where returns are not furnished, as remains unpaid at the end of each such month of default.

Interest payable by the proprietor.

(2) Where a proprietor fails to make a payment of any tax payable after assessment by the date specified in the notice issued under subsection (6) of section 5 for payment thereof he shall pay simple interest at the rate of two per centum for each English calendar month of default from the first day of such month next following the date specified in the demand notice up to the month preceding the month of full payment of

The words "Twenty-five per centum of the daily charges realised or realisable for an occupied room" were substituted for the words "fifteen per centum of the daily charges for a room" by s. 8 of the West Bengal Finance Act, 1992 (West Ben. Act I of 1992). The words in the square brackets were substituted for the words "twenty-five per centum of the daily charges realised or realisable for an occupied room" by s. 5(2) of the West Bengal Finance Act, 1994 (West Ben. Act XVI of 1994). (w.x.f. 1,4.85.)

^This proviso was added by s. 3(2) of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 1997 (West Ben. Act XXIII of 1997).

(2) If any proprietor, who is liable to pay tax under section 4, fails to furnish return in respect of any period or if the prescribed authority is not satisfied that the return furnished for any period is correct or complete, he shall proceed to assess to the best of his judgement the amount of luxury tax due from such proprietor and, in making such assessment, shall give such proprietor a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) Where the prescribed authority is satisfied that any proprietor is liable to pay interest under section 4B, he shall, in such manner as may be prescribed, determine the amount of interest payable by such proprietor.

(4) No assessment under sub-section (i) or sub-section (2) shall be made after the expiry of two years from the end of the period in respect of which the assessment is made or from the commencement of section 7 of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Second Amendment) Act, 1990, whichever is latter.

(5) In computing the time limited by sub-section (4) for making any assessment under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the period during which the prescribed authority is restrained from commencing or continuing any proceeding for such assessment by an order of any Court shall be excluded.

West Ben.
1990.

(6) Where any tax is due in consequence of any assessment made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or interest is due in consequence of any determination under sub-section (3), the prescribed authority shall serve upon the proprietor such notice as may be prescribed.

(Sections 5A-5C.)

5A. (1) A proprietor aggrieved by an order made under this Act or the rules made hereunder may appeal to such authority and in such manner as may be prescribed within sixty days from the date on which he receives an intimation of such order or within such further period as may be allowed by such authority for cause shown to his satisfaction.

(2) The appellate authority shall dispose of the appeal in the manner prescribed.

(3) Subject to such rules as may be prescribed, the prescribed authority may, of its own motion or upon application, review an assessment made or order passed under this Act or the rules made thereunder within two years from the date of making such assessment or passing such order:

Ben. Act III

Special mode

■7A. (1) Notwithstanding any proceeding being initiated under section 7 for recovery of entertainment tax or luxury tax or interest as an arrear of land revenue, the prescribed authority may, at any time or from time to time by notice in the prescribed form, require any person from whom money is due or may become due to the proprietor referred to in section 4A or section 4B or any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of such proprietor, to deposit into a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the appropriate head of account, either forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held or at or within the time specified in the notice (not being before the money becomes due or is held), so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by such proprietor in respect of the arrears of such tax or interest or the whole or the money when such money is equal to or less than the amount due.

(2) A notice under this section may be issued to any person who holds or may subsequently hold any money for, or on account of, the proprietor jointly with any other person and, for the purposes of this section, the shares of the joint-holders in such account shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be equal.

(3) A copy of the notice shall be forwarded to the proprietor at his last address known to the prescribed authority, and, in the case of a joint account, to all the joint-holders at their last addresses known to the prescribed authority.

(Section 7A.)

(4) Save as otherwise provided in this section, every person to whom a notice is issued under this section shall be bound to comply with such notice, and, in particular, where any such notice is issued to a post office, banking company or insurer, it shall not be necessary for any pass book, deposit receipt, policy or any other document to be produced for the purpose of any entry, endorsement or the like being made before payment is made, notwithstanding any rule, practice or requirement to the contrary.

(5) Any claim with respect to any property in relation to which a notice under this section has been issued, arising after the date of the notice, shall be void as against any demand contained in the notice.

(6) Where a person to whom a notice under this section is sent proves to the satisfaction of the prescribed authority that the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due to the proprietor or that he does not hold any money for, or on account of, the proprietor or that the money demanded or any part thereof is not likely to be due to the proprietor or be held for, or on account of, the proprietor, then, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to require such person to deposit any such sum or part thereof, as the case may be.

(7) The prescribed authority may, at any time or from time to time, amend or revoke any notice issued under this section or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of such notice.

(8) The Treasury or the Bank shall grant a receipt for any amount paid in compliance with a notice issued under this section, and the person so paying the amount shall be fully discharged from his liability to the proprietor to the extent of the amount so paid.

(9) Any person discharging any liability to the proprietor after receipt of a notice under this section shall be personally liable to the prescribed authority, to the extent of his own liability to the proprietor so discharged or to the extent of the liability of the proprietor for any sum due under this Act, whichever is less.

(10) If the person to whom a notice under this section is sent fails to make payment in pursuance thereof, he shall be deemed to be a proprietor in default in respect of the amount specified in the notice, and further proceedings may be taken against him for the recovery of the amount as if it were an arrear due from him, and the notice shall have the same effect as attachment of a debt.

(11) The prescribed authority may apply to the court in whose custody (here is money belonging to the proprietor for payment to him of the entire amount of such money or, if it is more than the amount of tax or interest due, an amount sufficient to discharge the liability of the amount of tax or interest:
